

Information about me

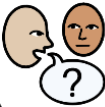

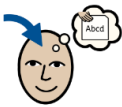

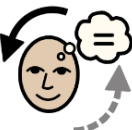

My name is Lucy

I am a Speech and Language Therapist

My job is to help pupils with the things they might find difficult. For example:

- talking about managing their emotions
- understanding what people say
- asking for help
- friendships
- learning new words
- following difficult instructions
- problem solving

Here are some of the things I like:

cycling

coffee

pasta

music

Here are some of the things I don't like:

running

horses

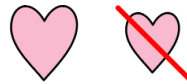

being late

doing laundry

I am looking forward to working with you you to find out:

→ What you like and dislike

→ How things are going at school

→ How you communicate

→ How you like to be communicated with → Whether there is anything you'd like help with → How I can make school easier / even better for you
